Consumer Notes:

Once again, were it not for all the merchandise stuff shipping just in time for the holidays, there would be an amazingly small amount of stuff new for December. I mean, you know it's bad when there are about as many T-Shirt SKU's as there are videotapes! Still, there are some things to talk about here: the final volumes of both Ellcia and Ushio and Tora are shipping, and Dancougar is only one volume away if memory serves. There are three new Dragonball shirts now available as well: even if you didn't see the ones we offered a while back you'll really want to see these (the earlier shirts ARE still available, by the way)! Of special interest to the gaming crowd will be the new Final Fantasy OVA series, the first of which ships this month as well.

Special Note 1

Our most successful title so far, the Irresponsible Captain Tylor, continues to break all sales records! Don't be caught short on this... order a one for the holidays! If you haven't seen it yet, you owe it to yourself to give this a long look!

Special Note 2:

As the holidays approach, stock will become variable on many items (particularly posters, books and T-Shirts). In most cases we believe we have sufficient stock to carry us through the season, but spot shortages may still occur. We're also implementing a series of changes in our order processing sections and adding quite a bit more automation which will make us even more responsive in the weeks to come, so bear with us!

Finally, all of us at The Right Stuf International would like to wish all of you a happy holiday season!

JEFF'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

Hmmm ... new Dragonball shirts. Do you see a pattern here? Also, the Dragonball CDs are sure to be popular.
